Serial No.

From,

The Editor,
Vokkaligara Patrike
dated 4th Sept 1931.

Rs a bill for Rs 45-4-0 being the cost of publishing Notification of vacancies from January 1931 & requesting for enhancement of the present rate of Rs 3-8-0 per half page.

As per contract rate only Rs 3-8-0 bills have to be claimed by the Editor from 1st January to ~~[illegible]~~ end of June 1931. It is not known why a bill of Rs 45-4-0 have been claimed for. In the bill it is stated that an arrear of Rs 13-4-0 is claimed what this arrear is not known. Probably this includes the claim of Rs 5/- for Dec 1930 which was disallowed. Don't calling for particulars is pending. ~~[illegible]~~ Whether the publication of vacancies in the newspapers may not be asked to be suspended since this office is not advertising vacancies as per recent G.O. dt 24.9.31. Submitted for orders.

NOTE—Contn. Sheet

Note In case no communication is sent for stoppage of publication the Editors may perhaps claim payment as per terms and hence a communication to the Editors in this behalf seems necessary.

A draft is put up.

16-10-31 17/10/31 So there any contract or understanding with the press? If so the point arises.

19/x

One or two vacancies may now and then be ~~public~~ advertised in the Gazette. Such small notices may not be prescribed as the newspapers, the Editors ~~of which~~, will dispense with the usual payment under contract. Hence it is proposed in the draft that publication of vacancies in the papers ~~may~~ be suspended until further order.

File leading to the G.O. No. 4554-55/ E.XIII-13-1-30-30/ 25-4-1931 regarding the publication of vacancies advertised by the E.XIII in certain local news papers is put up. There is no definite contract or understanding that payment should be made even during the period when there will be no publication of vacancies
